Class 2 Certificate Authorization (CA) during system initialization

COLUMN C WHICH ARE:

CMA archive records including system initialization records covering CMA accreditation (when necessary), certificate practice statement (CPS), and any contractual agreements to which the CMA is bound; system equipment configuration records; and CMA operational records such as modifications or updates, certificate requests and revocation requests, subscriber identity authentication documentation as required, documentation of receipt and acceptance of certificates (including DD Forms 2841 and 2842), documentation of receipt of tokens, all certificates and certificate revocation list (CRL) (or other revocation information) as issued or published, security audit records and data, other data or applications sufficient to verify archive contents and all work-related communications to or from the PMA, other CMAs, and compliance auditors

COLUMN D DISPOSITION:

Destroy after 7 years.

NOTES

- 26 The CA shall provide archived data and applications needed to read the archives to the DoD archival facility approved by the Policy Management Authority (PMA). This DoD facility shall retain the applications necessary to read this archived data for duration of the retention period.
- 29 Archives will not be modified or deleted by unauthorized CA equipment operators, but archived records may be moved to another medium.
- 32 If original media cannot retain the data for the required period, a mechanism to periodically transfer the archival data to new media shall be defined by the archive site.
- 53 No transfer of medium shall invalidate CMA applied signature.
- 62 The CMA shall maintain a list of persons authorized to modify or delete the archive and make this list available during CP compliance audits.
- 76 Release of sensitive archive information will be in accordance with guidance set forth in applicable policy.
- 87 Archive media shall be stored in a separate, safe, secure storage facility. Prior to archive, archive records shall be labeled with MDA's distinguished name, the date and the classification.

COLUMN B CONSISTING

emails which contain routine information, publications, and copies of replies which require no administrative action, no policy decision and no special compilation or reserach for reply. Originating office copies of letters of tranmittal that do not add any information to that contained in the transmitted material, or receiving office copy filed separately from the transmitted material. This is NOT a record category and should not be placed on file plans, this rule provides the authority for each user to destroy these emails after reading, it is the reponsibility of the jsender, to file the email record.

COLUMN C WHICH ARE:

quasi-official notices including memoranda and other records that do not serve as the basis of offical actions, such as holiday notices, charity or fund appeals, bond campaigns, and similar records containing no substantive information and those containing information sent as routine notifications of meetings, scheduling work-related trips and visits, and other scheduling related activities; suspense and tickler files or 'to do' and task lists that serve as a reminder that an action is required on a given date or that a reply to action is expected and if not received should be traced on a given date.

COLUMN D DISPOSITION:

Destroy immediately after reading/reviewing. This rule allows implementation of the auto-delete of 'live' electronic mail systems and provides the authority for each action officer to destroy emails that are sent as information, mass mailings and other emails that require no action by the reciepiant.

COLUMN C WHICH ARE:

products which serve such diversified purposes that it is impractical to develop a retention period for each

COLUMN D DISPOSITION:

Destroy when superseded or when no longer needed.

NOTES

- 160 The Personnel Data System (PDS) is comprised of two basic parts: PDS-Military and PDS-Civilian. Various mechanized reports management products and card decks are produced, either on a one-time or recurring basis, as system output. The Base Level Personnel System (BLPS) is based on a central computer file of personnel data at base level, using standard programs to process data, produce output products, and suspense personnel actions. BLPS supports current PDS-Military and PDS-Civilian at MAJCOM and HQ USAF. Projects from PDS of such significance as to require specific retention periods are identified in this table and Table 36-9. Products relative to auxiliary systems which either support or are supported by the PDS, such as project transition, leave, and others having unique disposition criteria are identified in appropriate subject matter tables in the 36-series.
- 212 Electronic copies created using electronic mail and word processing: Destroy paper after recordkeeping copy has been created and filed or when no longer needed for revision, dissemination, or reference, whichever is later.

written administrative admonition or reprimand not pursuant to Article 15, UCMJ, or sentence of court-martial on active duty personnel; documented evidence or supported allegations of an unfavorable nature, including control roster correspondence

COLUMN C WHICH ARE:

maintained by UIF custodian

COLUMN D DISPOSITION:

For enlisted personnel, destroy 1 year after the effective date of placement into UIF the most recent unfavorable correspondence or document not related to Article 15, UCMJ or sentence of court martial.

Enlisted files will be transferred to/within the ARC when a member transfers to/within the ARC or separates to HQ ARPC or HQ ANGRG.

For officers, destroy 2 years after the effective date of the placement into the UIF, the most recent unfavorable correspondence or document not related to Article 15, UCMJ, or sentence of court martial.

EXCEPTION: When the UIF contains more than one document, destroy all records after 1 year for the enlisted or 2 years for officers, from the effective date of the most recent unfavorable correspondence or document except when no longer retention is required by rule 5. Officer and enlisted files will be transferred to HQ ARPC or HQ ANGRG when a member is separated or destroyed if the member retires or dies, whichever is earlier.
